

Biography

Arsenial Runion is a native of Peoria, Illinois. Although, born and raised in Illinois, many of his formative years were spent in the Greater Kansas City Metropolitan area. Arsenial Runion is committed to serving the needs of his community, and sincerely passionate about the underserved population receiving the quality of total care deserved, with an emphasis in Health equity. Arsenial is a young, energetic, professional Healthcare Executive, with a diverse background in healthcare both for profit and non-profit sectors. Arsenial has recently served in leadership at Swope Health, a large federally qualified healthcare center, serving over 46,000 patients per year in Greater Kansas City Area. Arsenial believes in the value of education and obtained education in the field of Healthcare Administration at undergrad, and graduate levels. Arsenial enjoys giving back to the community, and always intentional about making a positive impact with all people he encounters. He is a part of several healthcare associations such as MGMA, HIMSS, NACHC, to name a few. Arsenial is proud to be joining East Liberty Family Health Care Center as Chief Executive Officer.